Times Publishing Group, Inc. 2024®

NEWSPAPERS

* All Newspapers are printed in full color on quality paper.

Times Publishing Group, Inc., is a locally owned and operated company that publishes local newspapers with content that covers news, sports, health, businesses, entertainment, local governments, and organizations. The demand for hyperlocal print publications is growing in today's marketplace.

Industry professionals realize that the death of the metro-dailies strengthens community newspapers. Our local publications provide opportunities to feature outstanding high school athletic teams, to honor community members, to remember those that have passed, to report on important local issues such as transportation, water, education, the arts, new housing and commercial developments.

They offer our appointed and elected officials a platform to reach the public and for public safety, i.e. sheriff, police, fire and health department updates. TPG continues to have a devoted readership because each of our newspapers serves its community with news they can trust for over three decades.
