Celebrating 35 years of bringing local news to our community.

NEWSPAPERS

• Printed in full color on high-quality paper.

Times Publishing Group, Inc., is a locally owned and operated company that publishes local newspapers for 35 years with content that covers news, sports, health, businesses, entertainment, local governments, and organizations. The demand for hyper local print publications is growing in today's marketplace.

Industry professionals realize that the decline of the metro-dailies strengthens community newspapers. Our local publications provide opportunities to feature outstanding high school athletic teams, to honor community members, to remember those that have passed, to report on important local issues such as transportation, water, education, the arts, new housing and commercial developments.

Our publications offer a platform to reach the public and for public safety, i.e. sheriff, police, fire and health department updates. TPG continues to have a devoted readership because each of our newspapers serves its community with news they can trust for over three decades.
